GOD AT WORK IN SAINTS OF OLD: [Ervin Hershberger]

This was the third work of significance brought into print by Hershberger. In this work he focuses upon men of God in Scripture. Many of these men were from ordinary human ancestry but rose to significant positions in God's plan. God uses ordinary men to do His work in extraordinary ways. God is continually working in the lives of ordinary men to accomplish His extraordinary purposes. He is continually testing and refining His own to present us complete in Christ. No one can improve on what God has done, is doing, and will do. This book is excellent for group study and personal blessing.

AUTHOR INFORMATION: Ervin N Hershberger was an energetic and diligent student of Scripture. In his lifetime, he wrote many articles for publication. He was the founding editor of Calvary Messenger and taught at Calvary Bible School in Arkansas. His teaching specialty was the Old Testament and the study of the Tabernacle. He was active as deacon in his church until his age and health caused him to lay the work down. {218 pages, 140x215mm, August 2010, PB, 0971705437 (9780971705432), £6.99, AtlasBooks (Vision Publishers)}

GOD'S WAKE-UP CALL: [Ervin N Hershberger]

"My bags are packed, I am ready to go". These were the words of Ervin N Hershberger when he was asked how he was. He was a man of prayer and a man of the Book. This book reflects his life. He saw this work as his last testament on Earth. Upon hearing of his death, the publisher wondered where the manuscript was. His daughter looked for it but could not find it. The day following his funeral it showed up at the publisher's mailbox with Hershberger's final corrections. God's Wake-Up Call represents a summary of Hershberger's lifetime of study in the book of Hebrews. The applications to the contemporary scene are pertinent and much needed in the church today. The book reveals the author's deep concern that people understand the need to follow God fully. In ten penetrating chapters, the author warns, instructs, and admonishes the reader in the most holy faith. He who earnestly reads is wise.

HOW TO RUN THE WAY BOXSET: Introducing Orthodox Christianity -- A Multimedia Resource [4

DVDs & 1 Audio CD. The CD contains everything necessary to present 'The Way' (the name first given to the Christian faith) to a twenty-first century audience. Prepared by the Institute for Orthodox Christian Studies, Cambridge under episcopal guidance, this is the most ancient version of Christian belief in its most challenging modern guise. All of the twelve talks that introduce central aspects of Christian faith are included together with their accompanying visual aids and an attractive student handout that summarises each address. For those who would prefer not to deliver the talks themselves, the four accompanying DVDs present the original speakers. Supporting material offers a wealth of instruction on the basic principles behind the course and how best to run it: advice on publicity, preparation and finance, on how to set up a venue and ensure a weekly support-structure: on group discussions and how to lead them, on how to run the question-and-answer sessions, on how to cater for the initial meal that opens each session and how to organise a final celebration. 'The Way' has been presented with success to audiences in the United Kingdom, North America, Australia and the Far East, and is in process of being translated for use in Romania, Eastern Europe and the Middle East. It sets out the ancient faith for a new generation, in a mode that is as suitable for parish or cathedral use as for the individual enquirer.

PASTORAL PRAYERS TO SHARE: Year A - Prayers of the People for Each Sunday of the Church Year

[David Sparks] Book & CD. The prayers are written for one or two leaders and a congregational response. They all allow for the inclusion of local and world-wide current events, and individual and congregational concerns. David usually uses the weekly Gospel reading as the broad theme for the prayers and divides them into four easily identified sections: world; suffering; church; ourselves. The "how to use" section covers preparing to offer pastoral prayer, and offers 12 ways to "do" pastoral prayer, such as: two leader congregational response; using people and objects to dramatise a theme; using part of a hymn for a lead or a response; using silence for effect. Each week offers specific suggestions for two or three prayer formats. Other features include: Thematic Index; Scripture Index; Icons in the margin to enable quick identification of prayer sections and alternate suggestions; Data CD with text files for Year A included with the print version.

WHAT SHALL THE REDEEMED WEAR? (WITH STUDY QUESTIONS): An In-Depth Look at What the Bible Says About Appearance [Simon Schrock]

"You're not wearing that, are you?" Such questions often lead into quarrelsome conflicts. Dad wants his son to look more decent and Mom is not happy with her daughter's wardrobe. One way to stir up strife is to register a concern about immodesty and indecency. The conflict is fuelled by those who say "God doesn't care how you dress. He looks on the heart, not the outward appearance". Is that really what the Bible teaches? Is it true that God doesn't care how His redeemed children dress themselves? What does the Bible say about appearance? This book has served many through personal studies and group studies. Every preacher and Bible teacher could benefit from this book.

COUNSELLING

BIG UMBRELLA: & Other Essays & Addresses on Biblical Counseling [Jay E Adams] This is a collection of essays and addresses given by the author in the early 1970s. In it, Jay Adams, perhaps the central figure in the nouthetic, or Biblical Counseling Movement, discusses a wide variety of subjects all dealing in some way with counselling from a biblical perspective. Dr Adams confronts and dismantles the common notion of modern psychology that all people with emotional and behavioural problems are sick, and presents instead a sound argument that sin and our rebellious nature are at the core of these issues.

{265 pages, 140x215mm, February 2010, PB, 1879737752 (9781879737754), £16.99, AtlasBooks (Calvary Press)}

BY DIVINE DESIGN: [Michael Pearl] Michael Pearl discusses questions that trouble many but few dare to ask. "Why does God permit sin, sorrow, and suffering if He is who He claims to be?" "Why did God even make us capable of sinning? If He knows all and is all powerful, couldn't He have created a world without sin and death?" "Why did God create Lucifer if He knew it would result in sin?" Many doubt God's good intentions, angry at the Deity whom they feel is responsible for their sufferings. Inmates in state prisons, students on college campuses, and our neighbours next door all ask the same accusing questions. Likewise the Christian parents standing beside a small grave are often heard challenging God. This book was written to answer a need in the author -- a need to speak, to document his world view. Over forty years of study, reflection, interaction, and teaching has developed a perspective that, though not original in any single point, is unique as each individual is unique.

AUTHOR INFORMATION: Michael Pearl, founder and director of No Greater Joy Ministries, has written on child training and family issues for many years. He has ministered to three generations, watching them grow from children to parents themselves. He and his wife Debi have been married since 1971 and were among the pioneers in the home-schooling movement. Between him and his wife they have authored fourteen books and eight booklets, which combined, have sold millions. Much of what he writes deals with marriage, child training, and home-schooling..

FIELD GUIDE TO GOD: A Seeker's Manual [Patty Kirk] In her "Confessions of an Amateur Believer", Patty Kirk gave readers an honest account of what it means to embark on a real relationship with God in today's world. Now, in "A Field Guide to God" she turns her engaging prose on a more practical matter how to discover God's presence in a world where we can't see, touch, or hear him. Courageously expressing her struggles with faith and doubt, Patty Kirk shows how to reencounter God in both conventional and unexpected ways. From new ways of reading the Bible and experiencing prayer to remembering how we have experienced God in our past and remaining open to indirect messages in everyday life, she helps readers bring more meaning and hope to the faith journey. In addition, each chapter concludes with simple, creative exercises that help you reach out to God. She encourages readers to step out of longing and passive seeking to take action and creatively pursue a God who is always there.

STRONGER THAN PAIN: [Arlene Kauffman] This is the story of one woman's triumph over indescribable pain, multiple surgeries, and multiple setbacks. Her hospital experiences were in a number of the leading universities of the eastern United States. Names were changed to protect doctors and universities. Arlene's illness was regarded by the medical profession as extremely rare. Highly respected doctors were frustrated in their inability to find answers to this highly unusual case. In the end, there were few satisfactory answers. "Through the years of physical pain and disability, I have prayed many times that God would use me in His service and that He would create in me a heart like Jesus". Arlene Kauffman uttered these words, which were put into the forward of her book. Arlene Kauffman knew pain like most of us can only imagine. Her resolute faith and trust in God to the end is both remarkable and exemplary. This is a wonderful faith-building book that is difficult to lay aside.

WOMEN

BREAKING THE EVE MENTALITY: [Deborah G Hunter] Breaking the Eve Mentality is a book that outlines the mindset of one dealing with a cunning spirit of pride that eventually leads to the revealing of God's heart on the matter of submission. Submission has been portrayed over years, decades, and even centuries as being a woman's issue, but God desires that we all submit to a higher authority, so that order is brought back to our society, allowing us to live in peace. Submission is not only an issue that is to be dealt with in the confines of marriage, but also in our everyday society from our workplace, to the relationships that we hold, to our local and national governmental laws, to the church, and finally to the perfect will of God for our lives.

PUT THE BLAME ON EVE: What Women Must Overcome to Feel Worthy [Melinda J Rising, Ph.D.] This book follows the roots of women's struggle for equal pay, equal status, and equal respect back to that fateful, eye-opening day -- when Eve met a Serpent by a Tree, and shared an Apple with Adam instead of enjoying it without him. How did Eve (and then all women) become a scapegoat for "The Fall of Man"? What "spin" on this story made women seem to deserve being held down or back, to be suspected -- and often even suspect themselves -- of devious intents or deeds? Who fashioned such spin, and how? And why did we ever buy into it? Melinda Rising's research into the gnarled roots of sexism and misogyny in our culture -- from the Book of Genesis through early Church history, the Crusades, heretic hunting, the Inquisitions, witch hunts, and on into our own century -- is startling, inspiring, and ultimately healing. Understanding this story, and seeing what still haunts contemporary women, may be an essential key for progress toward real gender equity in our time.

This edition includes an in-depth study guide, guidelines for book groups, a new scripture index on insecurity, a new bonus chapter, and more.

END TIMES

CALL OF INTERCESSION: [Deborah G Hunter] There is a clarion call going out to the Body of Christ to intercede for the nations of the world. We are seeing some of the worst economic, social, and political times in our history. The Word of God tells us that we will know the time of His coming only by the signs that we see all around us. We have to begin now, if we have not already, to stand in the gap, take our position on the walls, and set up our posts in the towers. The enemy of our souls is out to tear apart our families, bring us to a place of moral recklessness as in the days of Sodom & Gomorrah, weaken our governments, and literally wipe people directly off of the face of the Earth. We have an assignment as believers to lift up our voices to Heaven, and to declare the promises of God.

AUTHOR INFORMATION: Deborah G Hunter has authored several books and is the publisher and CEO of Hunter Heart Publishing, a Christian owned and operated publishing company. She was ordained as a minister in 2007 Germany. Deborah obtained her BA in biblical studies/theology from Victory Bible College, also in Germany. Deborah currently travels around the world ministering a yearly conference entitled Stir Up the Gift..

KINGDOM OF GOD: Volume 1 - The Future Breaks in [Tom A Jones] Jesus' main message was "the Kingdom of God". This should get our attention. We use the phrase, but do we use it like he did? Is it at the centre of what we preach and teach? More importantly, is it at the centre of the way we live? After two years of careful study, teaching, and self-examination, Tom Jones and Steve Brown offer this as the first volume in a proposed three-volume series to show that the heart of Christian radicalness is found in Jesus' subversive message of the Kingdom. If you want to keep your Christian reflexes-shaped more by history and tradition than by Jesus-this book will give you a headache. But if you want to study an amazing and transforming overlap of the coming age and our present age, and see what new wave of the Kingdom could arrive today, this should be your next read.

MORE OF THE END TIMES MADE SIMPLE: [Samuel E Waldron] This book is the second instalment in Dr Waldron's groundbreaking work, The End Times Made Simple, in which he deftly dismantled the interpretive view that dispensationalists have of prophecy in general. This book goes a step further, arguing that there are consequences to our eschatological (i.e., End Times) views. The reader will find powerful and cogent arguments for a strictly biblical hermeneutic, free from forced interpretations and presuppositions that have little to do with the actual Word of God. Some of the topics covered are how we approach biblical interpretation in general and prophetic interpretation in particular, and whether there is a distinction between Israel and the church, or is the church the "Israel of God". This book will change the way the reader approaches the great prophecies of the Bible, and will give the reader a renewed appreciation for the Lord Jesus Christ and His plan for His church.

SECRETS, CHASTISEMENT, & TRIUMPH OF THE TWO HEARTS OF JESUS & MARY: And What Heaven is Calling Us to Do [Kelly Bowring] Why is the world in so much turmoil today? What is going to happen in the near future? Are we living in the time of the Apocalypse? What is Heaven saying to us about our times? This book explains the big picture of the prophetic times in which we live and the apocalyptic times to come in the near future. An easily readable, well-researched, and inspiring book about the heavenly plan to bring peace to the world, this book uses solid sources like the Bible, the church's teachings, and heavenly prophecies to detail the coming times of the Apocalypse. As you turn each page with increasing hope, you will experience greater insight into God's urgent plan to bring his message to humanity while there is still time. You will find yourself referring to this book time and time again.

Introducing Orthodox Christianity

A Multimedia Resource - 4 DVDs & 1 Audio CD.

187289710X (9781872897103) £20.00

Institute for Orthodox Christian Studies

Prepared by the Institute for Orthodox Christian Studies, Cambridge under episcopal guidance, this is the most ancient version of Christian belief in its most challenging modern guise. All of the twelve talks that introduce central aspects of Christian faith are included together with their accompanying visual aids and an attractive student handout that summarises each address. For those who would prefer not to deliver the talks themselves, the four accompanying DVDs present the original speakers.

Supporting material offers a wealth of instruction on the basic principles behind the course and how best to run it: advice on publicity, preparation and finance, on how to set up a venue and ensure a weekly support-structure: on group discussions and how to lead them, on how to run the question-and-answer sessions, on how to cater for the initial meal that opens each session and how to organise a final celebration.

'The Way' has been presented with success to audiences in the United Kingdom, North America, Australia and the Far East, and is in process of being translated for use in Romania, Eastern Europe and the Middle East. It sets out the ancient faith for a new generation, in a mode that is as suitable for parish or cathedral use as for the individual enquirer.
